

STATE PARTNER

LeadingAge Colorado Assisted Living Conference
Thursday, September 25, 2025

Covenant Living of Colorado
9153 Yarrow St, Westminster, CO 80021

8:00 AM – Registration, continental breakfast, tour of exhibits

9:00 – 10:00 AM

SURVIVING SURVEYS: ENSURE YOU ARE PREPARED OPERATIONALLY AND LEGALLY

Maintaining regulatory compliance is a critical yet complex challenge for assisted living organizations. This session equips attendees with proven strategies to proactively manage the survey process. Explore best practices for documentation, policy management and staff training to ensure survey readiness. Gain insights on effectively contesting deficiencies and addressing repeat citations to safeguard your organization's licensure. Leverage expert guidance to foster a culture of regulatory compliance and mitigate operational and legal risks.

Peggy Kozal, Dickinson Wright, PLLC; Ericka Devos, Legend Senior Living

10:00 – 10:45 AM

HOT TOPICS IN FIRE & LIFE SAFETY: TRENDS, TROUBLES & SOLUTIONS

Stay up to date with the latest developments in fire and life safety from the Colorado Division of Fire Prevention & Control. Bryan Adams, Inspection Unit Chief, will discuss current trends, frequently cited deficiencies from recent inspections, and anticipated changes to regulations and policies. He will also address jurisdictional challenges—particularly the interactions between state and local authorities—and provide practical guidance on how assisted living residences can navigate differing regulatory interpretations. The session will conclude with a Q&A segment, offering attendees the chance to raise specific concerns and receive expert advice on staying compliant with evolving safety standards.

Bryan Adams, Inspection Unit Chief, Colorado Division of Fire Prevention & Control

10:45 - 11:15 AM – Break and tour of exhibits

11:15 AM – 12:15 PM
SMART CARE IN THE CENTENNIAL STATE: HOW COLORADO ASSISTED LIVING PROVIDERS ARE USING AI

Colorado assisted living providers are embracing AI to enhance care, improve operations, and engage residents in innovative ways. This panel will explore how communities across the state are using AI for fall prevention, predictive health monitoring, targeted marketing, and even resident interaction through social robots. Panelists will share real-world examples, challenges, and lessons learned as they integrate cutting-edge technology into compassionate, person-centered care.

Moderator: Robin Visser, Director of Marketing and Digital Strategy at Christian Living Communities

Confirmed Panelists: Kaleigh Perez, Business Office Manager at The Argyle; Kristal Wynn, Assisted Living Director at The Ridge Pinehurst

12:15 -1:15 PM – Networking lunch and tour of exhibits

1:15 – 2:30 PM
ASSISTED LIVING SURVEY AND REGULATORY UPDATE

Join Dr. Steve Cox, DNP, RN, Branch Chief at the Colorado Department of Public Health & Environment (CDPHE), for a comprehensive update on assisted living surveys and regulatory changes. This session will cover the current survey process, top deficiencies cited, enforcement actions and common Immediate Jeopardy citations—along with practical guidance to help providers maintain compliance. Additionally, topics covered will include recent legislative updates impacting ALRs and changes to Chapter 2 regulations.

Dr. Steve Cox, DNP, RN, Branch Chief, Health Facilities & Emergency Medical Services Division (HFEMSD), CDPHE

2:30 - 2:45 PM - Break and tour of exhibits

2:45 – 3:30 PM
MEDICATION OVERSIGHT IN ASSISTED LIVING: PRACTICAL STRATEGIES TO PREVENT CITATIONS

Medication management remains one of the most frequently cited areas of noncompliance in assisted living communities. In this session, Sara Wright of Assisted Living Consultants of Denver will highlight the most common medication-related deficiencies identified during surveys and provide actionable strategies to address them. Attendees will gain practical tools to improve compliance, enhance documentation, and strengthen internal audit processes—ultimately supporting survey readiness and elevating quality of care.

Sara Wright, Founder and Principal, Assisted Living Consultants of Denver